

Workshop - UN Convention on the Rights of the Child in Scotland – 06 August (11-21 year olds)

Do you want to have your say on the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child in Scotland?

Young Scot are working in partnership with the Scottish Government to engage with young people on how the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) is going to be incorporated into domestic law in Scotland. This sets out to meet the needs of children and young people now and for future generations.

What is it?

We're looking for a group of 20 young people who have a keen interest or are passionate about children and young people's rights in Scotland.

This will involve taking part in an evening workshop and sharing your experiences, views and ideas to help inform Scottish Government on the approach they should be taking to incorporate the UNCRC into domestic law in Scotland.

Interested? Aged 11-21?
