

Who Cares? Scotland

Warmly invites you to the following event.

If you work with or support children and young people in Renfrewshire, are passionate about improving outcomes for 'looked after' young people, or just wish to hear first hand from care experienced young people about what life is like in care in Renfrewshire, please join us for this free informative session.

Please feel free to forward the invitation to colleagues, volunteers, connected business partners and community groups of your organisation.
