

Join us for a free, unique workshop from
Hope For Justice on Thursday 7th February 2019
1.00pm to 3.30pm
Engage Renfrewshire, PA3 1NS

Hope for Justice deliver high quality, award winning, interactive training to ensure you will have the skills needed to successfully identify victims or cases of Human Trafficking and Exploitation and respond appropriately. For further information of Hope for Justice please visit their website hopeforjustice.org

We are delighted that Hope for Justice Training and Development Officer, Alister Bull will provide Human Trafficking and Exploitation Awareness training

On completion of this training session you will be able to;

1. Explain what Human Trafficking and Exploitation is and identify the different types that exist;
2. Recognise the signs and indicators of Human Trafficking and Exploitation;
3. Respond appropriately to a case / victim of Human Trafficking and Exploitation.

To book one of the limited spaces on this free workshop please contact smiller@engagerenfrewshire.com,