

Film: Willie Gallacher – Extras Required!

Would you be interested in starring as an extra? Alex Cathcart is looking to make a film on the life of Willie Gallacher: click here to find out more.

Alex is just starting to pull the ideas together but hopes to be working on it by the summer. The 'ask' is 'extras'!

Filming is going on, but the time is nearing that we are in need of Extras!

Details are as follows:

One, we are filming in the Bull Inn in Paisley on August 14, starting at nine o'clock. This will last no more than an hour and a quarter, or even less. For this we need the help of seven men. Scene is set in early nineteenth century. I can talk to whoever is interested in more detail.

Detail Two: we are filming in The Paisley Abbey on September Fifth beginning at nine thirty. For this: any amount up to around thirty are needed. This is a rather big and important scene. We are transforming the Abbey Choir stalls into the House of Commons. This will last longer.

Detail Three has no date as yet, but for that we need enough folk to fill a small hall. No great dress requirements, but of period a help. This will be in September.

If this is something you are interested in I can email you the type of dress ideally required, but please note that your presence is most important. Our team can worry about the rest.

* Public Liability Insurance is covered.

Apart from anything else it should be an interesting and fun experience for all.
