

Join author Victoria Williamson at the launch of her debut novel, The Fox Girl and the White Gazelle, at a special family event held in conjunction with the Scottish Refugee Council.

The Fox Girl and the White Gazelle is an inspiring and thought-provoking story aimed at readers aged 10-12. Victoria will speak about the real-life inspiration behind her novel, and will be happy to meet readers and sign books.

Lisa Seibold (Scottish Refugee Council Fundraising team) and a guest refugee speaker will appear at the event to speak about their own experiences. Guests can celebrate Syrian and Scottish culture with a range of traditional foods and drinks. Plus, the Scottish Refugee Council will be on hand to talk about their work with refugees from Syria and beyond.

You can help support the work of the Scottish Refugee Council by taking part in the event's fundraising raffle - with prizes including experience days, art lessons and theme park tickets.

Victoria Williamson will donate 20% of her author royalties from this book to the Scottish Refugee Council.

Tickets are free and can be booked on Eventbrite here:
