

Recognition for the Police Youth Volunteers

Police Scotland K Division hosted their 4th Annual Award Ceremony to celebrate the hard work and dedication of the Police Scotland Youth Volunteers and Adult Leaders who volunteer their time to support officers on the beat across Renfrewshire. This Event was held in the Salvation Army Hall, Paisley.

Chief Executive Alan McNiven of Engage Renfrewshire welcomed the Provost Lorraine Cameron and Superintendent Derek Lang along with family and friends of the youth volunteers and adult leaders to the Saltire Award Ceremony.

All recruitment is overseen by Police Scotland individual Group Coordinators. PC Audrey Paul oversees Paisley and is also an active member of Renfrewshire's Volunteer Manager Forum. This Forum consists of circa 60 organisations across Renfrewshire. PC Audrey Paul 'keeps her eye on the ball' ensuring she is always aware of the best possible volunteering opportunities for her young people.

There were 19 Youth volunteers and 8 Adult Leader Volunteers receiving awards which were presented by Superintendent Lang.

"PC Audrey Paul said The Evening was held to celebrate the achievements and personal individual triumphs of a fantastic group of young people who over the past year have shown dedication, resilience, commitment and knowledge in volunteering in their local area."

Alan McNiven of Alan McNiven 'I'm always delighted to be involved with Police Scotland's Youth Volunteers event in Paisley. Every year I'm taken aback by the commitment and energy of all involved – the young volunteers and the adult support volunteers alike. They are a credit to themselves and the area. Congratulations everyone!'
