EVOLVING CONFIDENTLY INTO AN APPRENTICESHIP

Skills Development Scotland, in partnership with the Comedy & Confidence Training, are delivering a programme to prepare ten individuals from a care experienced background or with an additional support need for a Modern Apprenticeship through interactive and fun learning.

Starting 3rd of July for two days per week, over eight weeks, individuals will gain work experience, interview and CV building skills and knowledge about Modern Apprenticeships all whilst working towards an SCQF Level 5 and an SCQF Level 6 qualification. This will help individuals build confidence, communication and general skills that will equip them for a Modern Apprenticeship.

What do you get?

- A recognised qualification
- An insight into Scottish Apprenticeships
- Valuable work experience
- Interview skills with a twist
- Eight weeks of fun and exciting learning

If you are interested in this programme or know someone who might be, get in touch with our NTP Equality team at MAEquality@sds.co.uk for more information on how to get involved.
