

JTS Social Media and Communications Volunteer

Location: Just Trading Scotland, Unit 3 Wallneuk Road, Paisley, Pa3 4BT (though working remotely may also be acceptable). Remuneration: £10 to cover travel and lunch for 5 hours or more work in Paisley Office.

Background on JTS – JTS aims to be known for empowerment and education of producers and consumers in an increasingly interconnected world, through the fair purchasing and sale of delicious food products from the developing world. We believe fundamentally that sustainable fair trade has the ability to tackle poverty in some of the world's most challenging situation.

Role Description

- The aim of this role is to continue the ongoing social media and communications work currently being undertaken by JTS. Through doing this they will seek to raise the profile of JTS and through this help to drive new and continued support for the organisation. In depth knowledge of fair trade is desirable but not essential, however applicants should have a keen interest in social justice. Successful applicants will have set projects but will also be encouraged to use their own initiative. Working in a relatively small not-for-profit this volunteering role gives applicants an excellent opportunity to develop skills and experience in an active third sector organisation.

The role of Volunteer may involve, but not be limited to, the following:

- Working with a team of volunteers and the Sales and Development executive.
- Management of JTS social media accounts.
- Creation of fresh and exciting content.
- Linking the work of JTS with wider trends and movements in the third sector world.
- Interacting with customers and relevant stakeholders.
- Involvement in the design and implementation of relevant campaigns.

Person Specification.

- A committed, enthusiastic and passionate individual.
- Fantastic written and verbal communication skills.
- Experience with Photoshop (Desirable but not essential)
- Good computer skills.
- A creative mind-set.
- Ability to work under own initiative.

Support

- You will be supported by the Sales and Development Executive
