These events will involve?

In this workshop you will get an introduction to what the new GP contract is and how it will work. You will then be asked for your views on how this could improve your experiences with GP services; concerns you might have about the changes; and how you would like people to be involved in the implementation of the changes.

Outputs and recommendations from this engagement will be presented to the Scottish Government for consideration in ongoing discussions around the GP contract. The ALLIANCE will continue to make the case for these outputs in interactions with Scottish Government throughout the development of the GP contract.
