

justenterprise

Since the launch of the Just Enterprise programme in 2011 over 7,000 people located across the length and breadth of Scotland have taken advantage of one or more of our range of services - from start up to business support to learning and leadership – all tailored specifically to address the needs of the third sector.

We're currently accepting applications for our business support services from both new and existing clients. By providing tailored business consultancy support free of charge to existing Third Sector organisations across Scotland we help them increase their trading income and become more enterprising and sustainable. Whether you are planning to develop new projects, promote new activities or innovative services, improve operational efficiency or strengthen the infrastructure of your business, Just Enterprise's consultancy service is here to help you achieve your aims.
