

You are warmly invited to a reception performance of 'Flutter' and the launch of the Scottish Gambling Education Network

Scottish Storytelling Centre

43-45 High St, Edinburgh EH1 1SR

Monday 13th of May, 2019

6pm– 8pm

RSVP by April 26th to
Chiara@fastforward.org.uk

The event will include a private performance of Flutter, a theatre play around young people and gambling-related harms, currently touring secondary schools across Scotland.

The mission of the Scottish Gambling Education Network is to bring together practitioners and organisations across Scotland, to share best practices, provide support and help establish, sustain and expand local gambling education projects.

Fast Forward operates the Gambling Education Hub, offering free training and resources to Scottish organisations working with young people, parents and families, to promote gambling education and prevention.
