SenScot Legal offer a range of affordable, accessible, approachable legal advice services to social enterprises and the wider third sector. They have a strong commitment to supporting social enterprise in all legal aspects with a view to broadening and strengthening the social enterprise community in Scotland.

This workshop will

- describe what is meant by trading,
- the different types of trading a charity can undertake,
- and the use of trading subsidiaries.
- It will then give a brief overview of GDPR and what to consider when running a charity to ensure you remain compliant.
