P1 Stay, Play and Learn

Early Years Scotland is developing and expanding this exciting venture that shares and promotes the Scottish Government's vision of closing the attainment gap and equipping our youngest children to achieve and thrive in a challenging world.

As the Schools Early Years Equity Manager, you will lead a team of Early Years Practitioners delivering P1 Stay Play and Learn sessions in primary schools, supporting this vision as it becomes a reality.

You will lead the team within designated primary school settings to:

- facilitate regular Stay Play and Learn sessions with P1, and up and coming P1 children and their families encouraging them to play and learn together
- fully involve parents to promote and enrich the vital home/school learning link
- work in collaboration with the primary school staff teams

An excellent knowledge of managing an early learning and childcare setting, an understanding of primary school culture, and current knowledge of emerging practice are essential for the post.

We will welcome applicants who can demonstrate:

- understanding of the importance of play, parental engagement and family learning in young children's learning and development
- experience of working collaboratively with other agencies
- excellent leadership and management skills
- excellent verbal and written communications skills with competent IT abilities
