Engage Renfrewshire in partnership with the Community Ownership Support Services (COSS) are running free information session on:-

What is Community Asset Transfer?

Are there publicly owned land and buildings in your community that you think the community could make better use of? Do you want to find out about the new community rights in Scotland that can help you?

The Community Ownership Support Service (COSS) has been funded by the Scottish Government to support community based groups in Scotland take a stake in or ownership of previously publicly owned land or buildings.

This adviser based service is being delivered Scotland wide and aims to provide individual community groups and public bodies with a bespoke support service. The session will cover:-

- Expert advice on all aspects of asset transfer
- Training courses on the asset transfer and asset development process
- Sign-posting to other support agencies
- Web access to information on good practice, toolkits and case studies.

Communities will also be able to link into the Development Trusts Association Scotland's wider network to explore the wide range of business models being adopted by other communities throughout Scotland and across the UK.
