

SALTIRE AWARDS SURPASSES 100,000 MILESTONE

Young People in Scotland are turning out in their thousands with numbers growing year on year. From 14,000 certificates awarded in 2012/2013 to 27,000 in 2016/2017.

The Saltire Awards are now celebrating a landmark 100,000 certificates awarded to young people since its launch five years ago. The awards aim to broaden opportunities for 12 – 25 year- olds to volunteer and be recognised for their efforts.

While celebrating their achievements, the Saltire Awards encourage young people to try out new ideas and record their volunteering experiences, as well as the valuable life skills they gain. Incorporating the principles of Curriculum for Excellence, it helps them become successful learners and more confident, content and responsible individuals; who go on to become contributors to society with greater job prospects

For more information on how to get involved please go to www.engagerenfrewshire.com